BONES FOR ALL. In 1797 Sir Philip Francis, the reputed vassing the State and endeavoring to author of Junius, argued in the British arouse the people. We are rejoiced to house of commons that "land owner- know that they are ready for the conship was the foundation of morality and flict. The duty on hand at present is religion." The Roman nation started registration. Atax-payer at the ballotand fellowed out its glorious career ut- box in Mississippi on the second of Noder the policy of homesteads for all; vember next without registration paand her disorders, fatal depressions and pers will be like a soldier in tattle withcorruptions date with the overthrow of out cartridges. Democrats! Conservathis policy. Euripides, one of the grest tives! Honest tax-payers of Mississip-Grecian dramatists, said: "The land pi, if you would save your property from where thou art prosperous is thy coun- confiscation, register. try." Nothing more true than that the best guarantee of national life, vigor and virtue is in the independence of its citizens. The policy of all our govern- a letter from Helena, Arkansas, last ments, State and national, should be to week, in which the writer stated that it discourage and finally extinguish land was currently rumored in that city, and monopoly, and to encourage homes for believed to be true by many, that the all. The Washington Chronicle, with yellow-fever was prevailing as an epi-plantations, it says: There is many a poor white, and equally poor black, in the south, who is sidered indolent and worthless, who he were the proprietor of a piece God's fooistool, even though small, which he felt was unquestionably his own, would rise up under the new it spiration, and become a better man. every negro owned his own cabin an st himself, but help to keep others a If every man who derived his living to labor of the soil had an interest in I soil, he would not only become perma mently attached to it, but improve i every other respect. It is no doubt true that when a man owns his own home, he becomes a better citizen. One of the chief obstacles the prosperity of the aboring classes in the old world, is the difficulty they have is procuring homes of their own, Euch indeed, is the disability under which mil laboring men and women are placed in Europe, that a majority of them are compelled to abandon all idea of landed possessions, though ever so small. It is not the policy of the old countries to land, and some facilities, not the best said to work well, and in time may i.e. United States, and especially in this fa- would conceal the fact. For the benefit wored portion of the country, there is no of those who do not know the regulawill permit, and around which shall not be buried in any cemetery cluster all the endearments and memcheap, the transfer so easy, building taker, whose duty it is to make a rematerials and labor so reasonable, that turn of the certificate to the secretary no man who has health and industrious of the board of health. This officer refreedom from an enforced military serselves of this advantage, and by pro- that it is almost impossible for an epierty for the reserver, where the overflow came, a minute, so as to let it soak selling to them on liberal terms. Small the country by the west winds of Au- mermaid cut in ebony, she shook her farms is what the south needs. This is gust and September; but, as we have fist at the astonished pastor, and dresses.

ambition, and, in this always, within her enemise.

in this Union. Determination seems to and other carpetbaggers. We give the will make a desperate effort to rescue Springs Reporter, as an indication of any better than Pagans. the State from the hands of the ignorant the spirit which seems to animate the and vicious crew that simply rule to blacks; rob. The carpetbagger feels his hold on Brigadier-General, State Senator, whites feel that it is a question of life and condition, and they are fighting death with them, and they are fighting death with them, and they are fighting death with them and they are fighting death with the was the brigadier-general of eleven counties and was contained by the death with the woods; and they are fighting death with the woods; and they woods; and the wo death with them, and they are fighting eral of eleven counties, and was going common in America that our patriot lites, which we certainly do not desire slive, be one — Household. the following elequent appeal to the young men of Mississippi: "Armed with going incendiary language was used by the right, upheld by justice, sustained that the editor- is informed isched on each recurring Fourth of July.

In the states that the iore- cannot be supposed that they intended the kind of ringing to which we are subjected on each recurring Fourth of July.

Many overskirts with be composed by honor, guided by intelligence, ap- by Mr. Foster, a northern man and a instead of being sainted by the joyous Many overskirts win be composed for true genuine manifeces. To that stoused by the agenizing cries of freedom, can the vome man of Mississippi and The advise for Months and the speech deliverdom, can the vome man of Mississippi and The advise for Months and The ad Shall they stand away and refuse to move into line? Shall they be stand away and refuse to move into line? Shall they be stand away and refuse to make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admitton of a pleated barque be make one last rally against the assault by the admittance of the lock men in the communication sent us from make one last rally against the assault by the admittance of the lock men in the communication sent us from make one last rally against the assault by the admittance of the lock men in the communication sent us from make one last rally against the assault by the admittance of the lock men in the communication sent us from the communication and in shame when every sentiment of correspondent is mistaken as to chimes, so that these may be used on manhood calls upon them to rally the advice given to the colored joyous occasions, and the monotonous plainer and more closely fitting than of speech; they will become easy, and fore, of confiscating the vakuf projectly of speech; they will become easy, and the monotonous plainer and more closely fitting than of speech; they will become easy, and fore, of confiscating the vakuf projectly around the bleeding body of Mississippi But if he did really make the re-and save her from a disgraceful death? But if he did really make the re-marks attributed to him, will the whites Shall they can they forget the examlonger hesitate as to the course best for ples of charity, courage and patriotism and are our patriots all dead? No, a is too terrible to contemplate, but still thousand times, no! The sons of Mis.

Is patriotism gone, war, is us prepare for such an issue. It is now discensed with. All the volume of the foliation, and about the evil of the tollet below the waist will be the wars a partner falled in debt, and Jack-form will add many millions to the sul-result of pleatings, drawings and outthousand times, no! The sons of Misworse to be unprepared should the evil fifty Christians of other denominations fings of the material, which are made satisfied. And so it was, also, that alsaippi are already in the field; they day come upon us. mean work; they mean victory; they mean victory; they mean freedom. By the graves of their by Ames. He has not lifted a finger to cept the doctrine of John of Damascus Release of Barner. ancestry, by the blood of their heroes, by the history of their wrongs, by all that is dear to liberty and death to which we dwell, must and shall be free." We hope Colonel Lamar's earn-set arroad will arroad will also be a state in the Godhead there is the free of est appeal will arouse not only the of order. There is not a respectable of order. There is not a respectable order.

3 The Holy Ghost proceeds from the Father through the Soc. tax-payer whose liberties and property ocratic, who would not gladly assist in 4. The Holy Ghoat is the image of the are imperilled in the result of the pend. an honest, impartial attempt to arrest Son, the image of the Father, proceeding canvass. The Democrats and Con-servatives should make a deflant, aggress. alike. Every business man in Missis-Him. sive war. Of Mississippi it has been truly supplus interested in a reign of peace. 5. The Holy Ghost is the personal said: "No people speaking the English Governor Ames is not liked throughout emanation of the Father, belonging to the same oppression and spoliation as the tax-payers of this commonwealth in the same oppression and spoliation as the tax-payers of this commonwealth in the same oppression and spoliation as the tax-payers of this commonwealth in the same oppression and spoliation as the tax-payers of this commonwealth in the same oppression and spoliation as the same oppression and spol what wonder in such condition of al- For the Sumtay Appeal. ars the fax-paying population should by making a supreme saruggle to rid SUNDAY, : : SEPTEMBER 19, 1875. themselves of such a rule. In such a contest, involving as it does lesues so grave and vital, we are no surprised to see such men as Colonel Launar can-

NO TRUTH IN IT. A business man of this city received

all its vagaries and much injustice to- demic in this city. There is not one ward the southern people, occasionally word of truth in the rumor. There is gives whelesome advice. In arguing no yellow-fever here, nor has there been the necessity of a division of large since the fail of 1873. The same rumor got afloat last fall about the opening of the business season. In keeping with this foolish and malignant spirit which prompts people to malign their neighbors is the report which was circulated through several counties of North Alabama a short time ago, that the negroes | Special of Memphis were dying by the whole- NEW YORK, September 14 - Amon patch, he would not only be more hon- sale with yellow-fever. And yet there the many treatures owned by the "mer are people who gave credence to chant prince" is a magnificent carpet the report, and were afraid to come to which was once intended to grace the Memphis. This was the object desired halls of royalty, having been manufac-tured for the Emperor Napoleon. Its by the slanderer who put out this report. size is about forty feet square. The cont seems almost incredible that men ter-piece, its most prominent object representing large business houses in other cities should resort to such contemptible means to get the trade which, burg, would at a distance be essily misif not tampered with, would come here, taken for an elegant painting. The pi The merchants of this city are honorade men, and send out men of high in the foreground, one is charmed tone to represent their houses as drum- the blue water and the stately ships a mers, and in no instance have we ever anchor; further back the harbor and an-

heard of a Memphian circulating false reports about other cities. It is a kind foliage enveloping the base of the of warfare akin to that waged by the mountains which form the background, writer of anonymous letters. The ven- and lift their hoary heads into a blue give the working people a chance to purchase homes. The land is not only high and in a few hands, but the perpetrator is difficulties and give the working people a chance to purchase homes. The land is not only high and in a few hands, but the perpetrator is poleon's coat of arms surmount the picture, and a Latin motto, wrought in gold on a blue ribbon-like the difficulties and expenses of assessin, who, in the dark, strikes ground, lies half unrolled at the base. making transfers are so great that the with his stillette. This city has poor cannot engage in such transactions. a board of health, which is land of beautiful flowers, much larger There has been some little progress in composed of honorable gentlemen, than natural size, but so brilliant and so this regard in recent legislation for Ire- all of whom stand high in the medical delicately and accurately represented profession, and it is their duty to know that it seems as if one might stoop and perhaps, are now given to laborers in of what disease every person dies who is side of this garland, and serving as a that country to become the owners of buried here, and also to make a weekly border to the carpet, is a wreath formed the land they till and the homes they report of the same. This is done regu- of overlapping oak leaves and acorns, live in. This new order of things is larly every Sunday morning through the shades of green and brown blending in newspapers here. No case of yellow- exquisite beauty. It is quite impossible come an important instrument in makest laborer may hope, by industry and frugality, to own the house which shelters his wife and children. But in these test is wife and children. But in the common of the carries is wife and children. But in the common of the carries is wife and children. But in the carries of several in the carries in the carries of several in the carries in the carries of several in ing Ireland a place where the commentates has been brought here from any which was made with the needles of reason why every family should not lations of the board of health, under art saw it at the Paris exposition, and bon, arranged like the front of the overhave a home of their own, which they the city ordinances, we will state that purchased it as a novelty to exhibit to when a person dies here, the body canhas been suggested that an effort be made to persuade Mr. Stewart to allow without a certificate from the attending it to be brought to Chicago and exhibitories of the sacred place. Land is so physician being obtained by the under- ed at the exposition. Terre Haute Gazette. habits need despair of speedily secur- cords it, and publishes every week the of the Baptist persuasion had a baptism

A Mermaid in Ebouy ing means enough to buy a piece death list, giving the disease or the down at the creek last Sunday, and the of land, and put upon it a comfortrailroad company or steamboat is al- vant girl was very anxious to be pres-This is one of the chief advantag # lowed to transport from the city the ent, and, as it was not her Sunday which this country affords, and, next to body of a person who died here of diswhile the dinner was cooking, and wen tase or otherwise without the certificate round in her working clothes. Her inof a physician as to the cause of death, terest was so intense that she stood close which is to be filed with the secretary of to the minister, who was in the water the board of health. A violation of this while the ceremony proceeded. After ordinance will sphiest the offending ordinance will subject the offending man, filled with enthusuasm, seized her, railroad company or steamboat to heavy and pulled her into the water. She fine. Thus our country friends will see resisted, but the minister imagined that she was merely afraid of the cold- Jewish robes. ness of the water, so before she could explain the situation he soused her. public not be made aware of it. From She came up sputtering, and exclaimed: what ewe have learned, there is and ' mirable example to native-born citizens.

All history demonstrates that the modern deed miles around Memphia, than there dred miles around Memphis, than there erged, chewlog is or has been here. Since the high and shouting: waters of a few weeks ago subsided, Don't you chuck me under agin, you

They can, however, en- on account we suppose, of the malaria in and do her good, sorrow-this is worthy of every man's city, notwithstanding the slanders of what de law kin do for you! Pil have fabries. The contest in Mississippi is the most terminate in a war of races, it will not not Johanna Johnson, you wooly-headexciting that ever occurred in any State be the fault of the negroes led by Ames ed berrin! You hear me on Then Joanimate both races. A tax-ridden people following, which we find in the Holly now persuaded that the Baptists are not overskirt and waist.

The advice to "load guns" is being clanger of bells more suited to arouse tiges. made in this county, it would seem, the inhabitants of a basieged city to people of Hudsonville by Sugge single bell's sounds of dismay be discover.

FRENCH FASHION NOTES. Algeriennes, Valenciennes, and royal should have said nothing about it now Crinoline is no more! Eight-inch Vaienciennes lace, from orty to sixty dollars per yard, twentyfive yards being necessary to trim a iress. Twenty-five yards cost one thousand or fifteen hundred deliars. How many Memphis belies or even matrons of our city will have a trimmed

A WELCOME HOME.

one again, my procing danguler fow the Freints complete,

Ah! but with her comes another, sweetest chiad in all the world; Little toddler, little prattler, 14 our wincome baby girl. Here she comes, now hide my basket. Quick; she'll have it at her will; Little feet are never tired. Little lands are never still.

she's coming, catch my work-hox.

She has turned its contents o'er, Steeling, thimbles, thread, and buttons. Here has scattered on the floor.

dust I scould her—come and kiss me. Pouting lips and mild, blue eye, ther dainty ways so cale, and cunning. And her actions all so sty.

Oil Time! You take me back to-night To my days of reseate his. When four lovely, fittle children Hest our home and hearts so true. We have left one by the wayside.

Scarce life's journey she had begun, She is now no longer "tired" Watting for the morn to come,"

But an angel high in heaven. Four years, now, she's worn the crown nd she'il meet us at the portain

When we lay lifes burden down

Eiysian fields: and rest forever We shall find, our Lord, with thee

A Wonderful Fabric.

Correspondence of the Morning C hid the giory of thy Father, Heaven and elernity. Herown words. ORINTH, MISS.

et we've blessing, without number showered from the hand divine; tile hands are never still.

Elevator dresses are the very latest For winter, short suits will be seen only in the street; they will be no longer admissable, or visiting after four o'clock; and as all ladies do not keep their carwhich they can raise their dresses when to negotiate a marriage between one walking and let them down again in the Castilian princeses and Lou

On dit, that the skillful embroiderer name? will form rich mixtures, such as silver Mary, albeit some etymologists transand oxidized steel, silver and gold, and late it marah (bitter), is one of the yellow and gold, execute tissures of such | sweetest as well as the commonest ever are elegance as may have been woven given to woman. I prefer to consider it n the looms of the fairies. Not the dresses proper, but only what authority has it, star of the sea. Maria or example, the plaid fabric combined merely other forms of the same name, near Hoboken, New Jersey, reside with the plain material of the dress.

rimmed with embroideries of oxidized sweet girls, in spite of taymologists. steele, silver and gold, red and yellow, rounding country of Marseilles, France ogether to form a picturesque toilette. brown, and ribbon of the same brown, be grouped with it. two inches wide. Of the plaid cashmere > inches wide, the ribbon and cashmere wisdom. skirt; the middle of the back is of faille. and simulates a large pointed collar.

and ribbon bows " Hyena styles have gone ont of fashion: dain, all plaid or striped, will partake | thority translates it industrious.

winter dresses. for theaters and drawing rooms, will be | magete and mayhet, which words were | from taxation. In this respect it stands worn over black velvet; blue and silver easily confused with Madge, and thus on the same plane with church properbrown velvet, etc. the same fabric will maghets, maids or margarets, whence deed, as we believe in all the States of so generally used for what are termed | we have the French marquerites.

White pique delaine, embroidered with What you doin'? Lemme go, I tell rooms, strand theaters, or partake of will be used for trimming on all fab- laurel; Phebe, radiant, or light of life, foundation, and thereby secured its safe the air wildly ries, indiscriminately, as well as on col- and Edith, rich. "G'way from here! ors, black alone being excepted.

of wife and children may beautify and any city in the south or west, and is you knowded well enough all de with damask designs of similar shade foreign.

adorn, and hallowed alike by joy and destined to be a great and prosperous time I'se a Methodist, and bin christ or varied colors, the latter styles closely sened by dem dat's yer betters, and r-sembling the finest colored enamels. knows more about religion than all de | Tals cloth will not be used for dresses. Baptisses dat ever shouled, you mis. but in conjunction with plain velvet to 'able scum! and me got the rheumat'z compose tollettes in the same manner as of all, Calista, most beautiful; Anabel Herzegovins and Bosnis; and in order enough to set me crazy! Ob, I'll see is done with plain and plaid or striped (from Annah or Hannah and bella) sig- to adopt such a measure of relief, it is you 'rested dis very day, or my name's Algerinne stuffs, woven with gold and

Here comes the Algerine overskirt, the olive tree (or, symbolically, peace); and the public test relaxing. He sees that he must step down and out of poll- that he must Emeline Raymond, whose predictions | healer; and Thalia, flowery juy. in which he took occasion to say that Italy and Belgium there are few churches have next winter many variations, but must mention Minna, love; Stella and prompt payment of the Interest on the ties. He is desperate, and his only hope in which he took occasion to say that if Governor Ames was going to send him is to ret up riots and bloodshed and one thousand stands of under sa apple tree, near the back door, but that have not at least an octave, and in light hope and the say that it is the prompt payment of the interest on the stands of under sa apple tree, near the back door, but that have not at least an octave, and in light have not is to get up riors and bloodshed and one thousand stands of arms to secure in his babeliths armed in that have not at least an octave, and in that have not at least an octave, and in that have not at least an octave, and in that have not at least an octave, and in that have not at least an octave, and in that have not at least an octave, and in that have not at least an octave, and in the property of the property at the proper pretensions which has has not its chime and that we must not count on a visi- (fer than Milly), honey-like; Madeline, has been given up, for the present, at The owner of the premises was the wing kill all the white men, women and of from eight to twelve bells. It was, ble, radical, and well-marked change in magnificent; Theodora, gift of God; least, and its abandonment is said to be on a bit of straw, and the neighbor was You must all load your guns with buck-celebrating the advent of our national closed diagonally, either on the right or Republican, that the affidavits of a dozen sound of a Triple Bob Major, giving un- simply of a trimmed strip of meterial end, cultivate a frank, hearty, earnest notwithstanding their corruption, these them to pursue? If the leafers of the blacks in Marshall county will have by the recent conference at Bonn, at least the measurement of the by the recent conference at Bonn, at is now dispensed with. All the volume when in early life the store in which he is now dispensed with. All the volume when in early life the store in which he is now dispensed with. All the volume when in early life the store in which he is now dispensed with.

adversary being slightly wounded. Personally, I was very glad indeed to hear of Baron Boileau's rehabilitation, had I not used some rather strong ex-Dalmans and paletots are stylish once pressions of sympathy for him in my comments upon the trans-continental affair. Women's Names, Very few persons, it may be supposed. know the meaning of their names, and just a few, it may also be supposed, ever took the trouble of trying to find out. Shakespeare's inquiry, "What's in a name," would take considerable time to answer, if the person questioned should undertake to go over all the ground it covers. A writer who has been looking into this subject of names has gathered and published the follow-On a certain occasion two French au-

ing interesting facts about them: riage, ingenious devices are prepared by | bassadors were sent to the Spanish court the drawing-room. These devices a lorn the skirts instead of injuring them by were Urraca and Blanche, the first the skirts instead of injuring them by the different drapings. Many dresses whom was the elder and more beautiful number among their trimmings some-was intended by the court for the hing that bears a vile name, and which French king, but the ambassadors reso is no prettier than its appellation. It is littely persisted in their preference for called the tag, and is a strip of stuff Blanche on account of her name, say which is set at the back of the dress on ing that Urraca would never do. They the bettom, and falls in such a mauner were sensible men. So Blanche was as to form a train; this is trimmed like made queen because she had a fair name; the dress, and loops up and drapes it at and Bianche was always fair, if not beautiful. Is there not something in a as signifying exalted; or, as another and, of course, have the same meaning. Among the latest and accepted fall Martha means bisterness, which, who has two daughters. One, Amands styles may be noted the wrappings of alas! is too often significant of the lot of about twenty, has for a long time sole overskirt. The dress is finished in the It is pretty in its Irish modification, and out, "Here comes father." Amanda, see-no painter could portray color or detail like the rest of the dress, of the com- the fair owners of these fine names Amanda being a short, "chunky" little with greater skill. It actually cost ten posite order of architecture. The fronts should, therefore, be queens—queens of piece, she floundred about the boat like simply diminutives, signifies soft-baired; purpose. She would get one foot in, Harriet, mistress of the house; and Alice when the boat would tip and she would The rett of the back is of cashmere: the sprincess Rooms should be tender, affectionate. sleeves are of cashmere, with faille cuff's motherly. The name is said to signify too, took a watery bath. In the mean literally, one who nurses, cares for, or time, the father kept calling for help winter dresses, instead of being all | watches over another; but another au- when a moving hulk came and helped f all these styles. Plain stuffs com-sined with plaid, striped or embroidered name for a tall, slender, flower-like girl, while poor Cushing sat on his little craft, abrics will be used for embroidery, is to of fair complexion and native grace. As not daring to venture ashore for fear the thing for all dressing tonettas, companions for this, Lilian (lily-like, Is- that old Fulchler would carry out his Embroidery of steel galloon on white tantina (white lily-bud), may be men-threats of putting a bullet through him. or black, of silver galloon on gray and tioned. The last is of Indian derivation, Red copper gailoon for the embroidery | Margaret comes to us from the Latin black or white fabrics for all the margarita, a pearl. But another, and metals is in preparation for use on the | if possible, a still more beautiful signifi- owned or held in trust by the mosques, estion, has, curiously enough, attached or by Mohammedan benevolent insti-Gold, white and purple algeriennes, itself to the name-the German words outions, and as such is entirely exempt over gray velvet; orange and silver over | with Margaret. Daisies were also called | ty in the State of, New York, and, inved; Adeline, of noble birth; Eleanor, estates from the rapacity of the authori-Valencieunes lace, of the first quality, favor; Matilda, a brave maid; Laura, a nominal sum to a mosque or other pious The valenciennes is eight inches wide, by significant name. It is a favorite one erty after it has been once dedicated to extremely long, scarcely four inches Althea, marshmallow (Greek, althaia, and paying no taxes at all. By the sec- subject they rapidly drifted into finance. shorter than its velvet skirt, and but a attharino, I hest); hence, also, very utarization of the property of the relibeautifully, as well as appropriately, the glous bodies, the Ottoman empire could | ne occasions, and only say "yes" when ciently numerous in Europe to care to years to come down to a specie basis. The usual saying is that it is thrown for Walsts of dresses will be longer, you mean it. Cultivate truthful habits out each other's throats. Instead, there Sleeves will be close fitting, with an books I have recommended abound pealed the exemption from taxstion excission, trimming-ruches, flowers, re- with illustrations of this nature. As an which it has hitherto enjoyed, at the result of pleatings, drapings and puf- son said he would pay those debts, the tau's treasury. satisfied. And so it was, also, that when in a secluded place with his army, that is dear to liberty and dear to liberty and dear to grampy, they swear as one min with one voice: 'Mississippi, proof State in which we dwell, must and shall be free.'" We hope Colonel Lamar's earn.

> Mabelle), my fair one; Amanda, lovely; nifies kind and beautiful.

The Holy Ghost proceeds from the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed, is an eld shoe after the bride on leaving from the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed, is an eld shoe after the bride on leaving from the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed in the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed in the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed in the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed in the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed in the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the failed and prepared to Several years have elarsed in the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the specific and prepared to the course, in the source of the Godhead. The was the source of the Godhead. The work of the proceeds from the specific and prepared to the course, in the source of the Godhead. The work of the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the specific and prepared to the course, in the source of the Godhead. The work of the course, in the source of the Godhead. The work of the course, in the course of the Godhead in the course of the Godhead. The work of the course of the Godhead in the course of the Godhead. The work of the course of the Godhead. The work of the course of the Godhead. The work of the course of the Godh nental fraud, or the affair of the Mem- This quality of mind and character will not long ere they began to develop serve you under all circumstances, if attended to two years imprisonment. I defended to two years imprisonment. I defended to two years imprisonment. I defended to two years imprisonments and the contracter of the characteristics of their proton want?" baron very warmly at the time, mined manner. If you have started in arose over the hours of work were devaifor I saw clearly that he was the victim of this gigantic fraud, rather than an agent in it. He was sacrificed by his brother-in-law, Fremont, who might, I believe, though I do not feel quite sure upon this point, have saved him if he had been so disposed. Baron him if he had been so disposed. Baron Boileau married Miss Benton, who had a dowry amounting to seven him at a dowry amounting to seven him the had been so disposed. Baron cause if you do you won't get it. As Arabs and silently stolen away. He was evidently glad to be rid of them, bal a dowry amounting to seven ing the cashier was so sympathetic, so and we have heard little of "Chinese down on the stoop and retired and he

specially specia

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL-SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1875 LAVENDER. ow prone we are to hide and hoard ach little token love has stored. To tell of happy hours:

tattered book, a curl of hair, A bunch of faded flowers. When Death has led with pulseless han Awnile we sit bereft;
But time goes on: anon we rise, ar dead being buried from our eyes,
We gather what is left.

The books they loved, the songs they he little flute whose music rang So cheerity of old; The pictures we have watched them paint The last-plucked flower, with odor faint, That fell from flagers cold. We smooth and fold with reverent care The robes they, living, used to wear; And p inful puises stir. As o'er the relics of our dead, With bitter rain of tears, we spread Pale purple lavender.

And when we come in after years. ith only tender April tenra On cheeks once wet with care, To look at treasures put away Despairing on that far-off day, A subtic scent is there.

Dow-wet and fresh we gathered then.
Those fragrant flowers—now every stem
Is bare of all its bloom.
Tear-wet and sweet we strewed them here
To lend our relies sacred, dear, Their beautiful perfume. That seent abides on cook and lute But eloquent appeal, wins from us a deeper sob or our jost dead—a sharper throb Than we were wont to feel. It whispers of the long ago, its love, its loss, its aching And buried sorrows stir; And tears like those we shad of old holl down our che-ks as we behold Our faded lavender. Ridiculous Ending of a Romance. William Fulchier, a well-to-do florist white, gray, brown and black cloth, women; but our Marthan may be very flowers and bonquets on Broadway. She sweet girls, in spite of taymologists. | was rather pretty. She met Philip Anna, Annie, Hannan, and probably Cosbing, who resides in Hoboken, and These in shape somewhat resem- Nina and Nancy, are all from the same does business in the Jersey abattoir ble Dalman and the ancient paletal, root, and signify gracious or kind, of and they agreed to get married; but old which, according to Dickens, is "a loose which fact the fair owners of these edg. Mr. Fulchier had no idea of losing his vercoat," but which originally meant nomens will please to take notice, and daughter, as upon her depended the peasant's frock, as it had a cap or govern themselves accordingly. Jane, greater portion of the income, her sales cod. The neutral mode offered is now generally facilitarized into Jenny, smounting to twice as much as that of oss fronts, tight-fitting behind, with though differently derived has the same her sister and brother, who also sold loose fronts, tight-fitting behind, with large sleeves, neither short nor long.

The Paris correspondent of a New York fashion plate writes as follows:

If the fashion presses it has the present course, and even exaggerates it, as the meaning and one in the street, who also sold the parts of a New York fashion plate writes as follows:

Eilen was originally Helen (Latin, Helene). According to the same that the locked all lying down indiscriminately, some all lying down indiscriminately, some just attacked, some still in agony, and one who were strong that the people coarse and brother, who also sold there are no four men, most with the same and brother, who also sold there are some completely covered with grass. Entering a house your would find men, women and even exaggerates it, as ingled the old gentleman that he locked by three or four men, most which were soon completely covered with grass. Entering a house your would find men, women and even exaggerates it, as ingled the old gentleman that he locked on the results of the mentiones that the locked of t adies will look as if they were dressed she of Troy, has proved siluring, and project. Things ran along very well for enough attempted to commit suicide, wine that each one would tear his tick. When the service well for and not always unsuccessfully !! We are in mofley—true tarlequin's garb. A some have shown that pity is akin to piece is cut of plain stuff, another of the love. Ells is only a variation of Ellen. Amanda stole out of the house more permanent four or five were buried with the scourge became the form of the house more permanent four or five were buried. Amanda stole out of the house more permanent four or five were buried. ame stuff striped, a third of the same | For Sara (Hebrew, Sara, or Saria; and at daybreak with at the clothes she | more permanent four or five were buried | tuff plaided, and a fourth of ribbon to Arabic, Zars), we find two definitions— could carry, and started down the hill together in one grave, and generally thousand two hundred dollars in the till, astch; then these pieces are all sewed a princess, and the moraling star.

| Count carry, and started nown the ligious service. In some thousand two numbered qualars in the unit toward the Elysian Fields. It seems without religious service. In some Mr. M'Cullough had finished the play, Lucy signifies like light, and the name that there she was to be joine t by Cush-Here is a type of a dress of this kind: was anciently given to girls born at day. ing, who was to have a beat ready at en floors of the houses, in others just Sahogany brown cashmere, with plaids break. (Aurora, Aurora; the Eyslan Fields dock to convey her outside the house. The burnels were f the same brown, but shaded from the golden, the dawn, or morning redness); across to New York. This was done to hurried, and the probability is that some arkest tint to white; falle of the same | Bertha (oright), and Ctara (dear), may | avoid the recognition which might come Louise (French, Louise), is the femi-known Mr. Fulchier, on getting up a In one village all the women died, and San Francisco Call. s made the front of the dress (the tablier | nine of Louis, and has the meaning of | few seconds after his daughter had left. and side breadths), which is trimmed protector, or one who cornishes a place missed her, and seeing all her clothes to read of the different mental effects scene of another wrestling contest last quaring by Sanksy to sing on the bottom with a thick faille ruche. Over this front is draped an apron over- Fannie, or more formally France), is learned by a friend that the girl was within a new feet of Amanda, when she the bottom in a reversed triangle, which the Greek, Kathare (pure or chaste), is was in the boat, and had just got all her omes a little below the bottom of the one of the best of all our female names. clothes safely stored way, when she cried a turtle, poor Cushing trying all he could go again. At last Cushing made a desperate effort, and the result was that he to rescue the unfortunate ccuple. Aman-quently met with, are: Agnes, chaste; dan church is denominated vakuf, and is from good game stock, every inch of ward and suggested to Farrell that he wool of different colors, will be the styles and Amy (from the styles for young girls who enter drawing- for young girls all fruitful; Gertrude, all truth; Grace, ties, many have sold their land for a Cock-a-dood e-do. Aberd on Examiner: The Jackson Examiner: The there has been one chills all along the country continues and country continues to the river, where the overflow came, of the river, where the overflow came, on a country we suppose, of the malaria of a lew weeks ago subsided, and legal to the delication of the clergyman was inext. The clergyman courage the poor isbuting classes, by selling to them on liberal terms. Small the gountry by the west winds of All the grant of All the grant of the subsequently of and Salome, it cannot be taken for his subsequently.

. . . Church Property in Turkey.

In section and lenciennes lace, which, however, will the Tempers; Eve, and Eva, life-giving, him; and they can lease or farm it out, standing there, looking like a draggled give place in the winter to garnitures or farmit out. Standing there, looking like a draggled give place in the winter to garnitures or farmit out. Standing there, looking like a draggled give place in the winter to garnitures or farmit out. Standing there, looking like a draggled give place in the winter to garnitures or farmit out. his children do for one generation after stands, it is highly exhibitating and en. his back, falling upon him, and winning sang: of sils, velve, cloth and algerienze peaceful. Almah is of Orientsi origin, contracted debis, nor can it be confis-dresses. how a that many, very many, of the dresses. the policy by which to secure immigra- said, this has not affected this city to shricked: "Oh, I'll fix you! I'll bust a secure immigra- said, this has not affected this city to shricked: "Oh, I'll fix you! I'll bust a secure immigra- said, this has not affected this city to shricked: "Oh, I'll fix you! I'll bust a secure immigra- the h) is Latin and means benign, genial, even sell it, provided he gives other land never registered. If they but knew and as great an extent as the country back offen you, you or nary trash! afactured for next winter is gold and or one who nurtures or cherishes. Cors of equal value in its stead. This wide-could be made to feel the harm of the Scusin' me in dat dar creek silver damask cloth. A ground of gold-is a maiden; Jania, youthful (everyoung extended immunity from taxation situation which another four years of of it. Memphis is as healthy.to-day as and nearly drownded me, when ye low or silver white is thickly covered she should be); and Barbara, strange or throws the whole burden of supporting Radical rule may entail upon our counthe State upon the rest of the people. It | ty, with its increase of poverty and taxis generally conceded that an abatement ation, it would indeed be strange if they acknowledged by such a name as Mabel of taxes must be the first step toward could remain quiet when next an opconciliating disaffected Turkish sub- portunity is offered to perform that duty Rebecca, of enchanting beauty; or, best jects, the Christian peasants of the first necessary for the Turkish givern- | yard Thursday afternoon. He was look-Thave mentioned seversi floral names. | ment to obtain a large revenue from | ing at it in such a way as to easily at silver, will be worn during the winter There are others which one might wear some new source. With this design tract the attention of any neighbor for drawing-room and theater toileties. as she would a crown of fragrant blos- the porte has been recently considering might have a lot of unemployed time hanna went home to redress, and the ceremony proceeded. Miss Johnson is while the Algerinne will serve for the ing; Flora, the goddess of flowers; Olive, ed projecty held by the mosques religious institutions, ncome, control the expenditure, and with great difficulty they can be restrained from working on Sunday, Chicago Times. The intervals between the plant- Raiston became generally known as a ing and harvest of the great business man, and his social life was at staple, are used for gathering wood, the same time the comment of the pecplanting fall crops, and devoted to such | ple of the Pacific slope. He was known odd jobs as they can secure. A Chi- as a man who set all social convention-advantage of each one. As a glory on the coast He made a visit to race they are said to possess wonderful. Nevada, and had played several nights powers of endurance, and in addition a in Virginia City to crowded houses. He pertinacity unequaled even by the Cau- was a special favorite of Ralston, Sharon asian. Possibly some attention to their and a couple of others. M'Cullough had desires might develop an immigration closed his engagement and was ready to which would be very advantageous. leave the city. His trunks were packed Every bale of cotton, by whomsoever and at the stage station ready to make cultivated, added to the crop, increases their journey to Reno. It was in the our prosperity. The Plague in Fiji.

From the Sydney (New South Wales) Herald, Further information from Filiconveys still darker accounts of the plague which has recently passed over the new colwriting to a Victorian cotemporary, says: "The death-rate is not made up, but the probability is that forty thousand Fijians died during the four months ow about one-third only of what it was when I landed here about twenty-five years ago." The accounts given of the nagnitude of the disaster are less burrowing than those of the sufferings of measles, the majority dying of subsewithout meeting any one in the streets, cases the dead were buried in the earthwere buried alive. In many instances in another the men." It is it tresting The Palace suphitheafer was the forward and op-used produced by the torture of obsesse. It night. The match was between Homer number are said to have borne their by their applause and shouts of appro-Julia, of which Julietta and Juliet are to draw her up into the boat, but to no calamity with fortitude, and to have bation as the favorite parried the rapid suffered and died under the influences of movements of his opponent. Farrell

MISSISSIPPI.

istration papers, look at the date, and If the are, go and re-register. Why can't the loyal sheriffs of Mississipi just start out in search of the ne- and throughout the contest maingro outlaws and Radical kuklux who tained the offensive. Farrell adopted outrage law, pillage and murder at will? | the opposite tactics, and seldom lifted We haven't yet heard of a United States marshal even attempting to capture any of the numerous Radical rob-the white citizens of Holly Springs, has thirty feet in diameter. For one hour Holly Springs Reporter: It is we'll and another time, his feet in the air, he

The Currency Question. A Danbury man was looking at his contemplated improvement. From this "Pretty tough times!" observed the

"Yes, they are that, an' it'll b tougher before we're over it, I imagine, ors dispersed.

question, which has got into politic "I think it will be settied one way the other before another presidentla election is over," repiled the owner, "Ezekiel," pronounced a sharp voice his face was an assertion of independfrom the stoon "I wish you'd get me a pail of water." "In a minute—as I was sayin' the matter is bein' pressed with unusual out nothing definite has been reached Now, I imagine this campaign will setnev, of course" "Certainly. What does the income ou want?" is then thrown as lar as possible, and will a chairen. It want a pail of water. I've told you the ladies can for it, the successful one fully impressive.

time, too, is fully employed, it being of twenty years of married life.

gone to bed,

A Ralstonian Revel.

nese house in St. Louis furnishes alities at defiance. He cared nothing them with their supplies. A Celestial for jubic opinion. He lived only for nlawfully, against the peace, aree certain sheep of finest fleece, writes his order in Chinese charac- W. C. Ralston and the pleasures which ters upon a strip of paper about the size that individual experienced. He outof a visiting-card; he takes it to the post- raged what little decency there was in master and, presenting a business card, the mining camp, and lived a life of has an envelope addressed to the firm wild and almost utter recklessness. He and mailed. Not a word is spoken, but | maintained fast women within a stone's in season the goods arrive, every article | throw of his home, where lived his wife ordered coming promptly to hand. If and children. He did nothing by piecethe statements conveyed in the forego- meal. A circumstance which happened - growing auxious for my suitld, in a whisper, "Don't forget to bayn't touched the case as yet ing facts be not exaggerated, the infer- during his sej sum in Virginia City will ence is plain that the celestial has not serve to illustrate, as well as could anyon've talked I know an hour or mor heretofore been understood. With even thing else, the prevailing characteristics the fewest opportunities to be of this strange man. John M'Cu'lough, ore us what Justinian tan And Coke on Littleton: he All through the 'Code Naj And very learnedly, no do come independent, he takes the tragedian, was in the hight of his Hoody and Sankey - Whittle and Bliss-Their Revivals in Massachusetts. parly evening and after business Such meetings as Moody and Sankey hours, when Raiston and a few enduct cannot be estried on in any others conceived the idea that it would own very long without a marked in be a capital plan to have M'Culcrease to the number of attendants, lough play once more, so they tent word and, as was to be expected, the meeting o him that they wanted him to appear on Saturday evening in the little old that night in the Gladiator. John sent North Congregational church was the

was prepared to go to San Francisco, and most crowded one that has thus far been back word that it was impossible; he he could not delay his journey. This the surrounding towns, many coming would not do-play he must. Messengers were sent to bring his baggage back, George B. Davis, chairman of the exutive board of the Vermont State You thing ready. The theater was a small affair, and would not seat over seven or from Burlington, and Colonel L. K. Fu eight hundred people. M'Cullough saw that it would not do to refuse the men Brattleboro, drove down twelve no who had been his best patrons and bank- with wagon-loads from Brattlehoro, and ers, and so he made ready. There was Colonel Fracklin Fairbanks, and obthe victims. "Very few died of the no doorkeeper that night. It was free to all—but there was a man in the box-office who sold tickets, simply for the nourishment or starvation carried off thousands." We are told that "all work was suspended for their work that support the sake of appearance it was a grand blow out gotten up by the bank people. The receipts that told that "all the receipts that place of appearance it was a grand than this small, country church, with thousands." We are told that "all blow out gotten up by the oank people. The receipts that night amounted to the unprecedented figure of thirteen thousands. The receipts that night amounted to the unprecedented figure of thirteen thousands. You could pass through whole towns sand two hundred dollars, and it was all wonderful fitness in the planness of was out of tickets, there was thirteen ment to his plain frock cost, but mesbe floor was strewn with tickets, and can well get.

the whole party was as drunk as men men appeared in the arena. They stood is not surprising to find that "some Lane, of some celebrity as a wrestler in join the chorous. kirt, made of strips of plaid cashmers frank, or free; Elizabeth (bester as Lize seen going down the hill. He succeeded made fruitless appeals to their ancient the Atlantic States, and William M. entire organ and same the semiour inches wide, and plain ribbon two zie), leabel and Edza, truer, and Sophia, in tracing her to the dock, and was god. Some inland tribes, who had only Farrell, of this city. The grip was on in his full, free, clear view recently embraced christlanity, con-sidered that the disease was conveyed stakes were five hundred dollars a side. by their religious teachers, and they dis- The attendance was meager, only about love of which he sang. The thought of missed them, and then abandoned their three hundred men and boys, and they each line of the hymn was expressed on new religion. Among these some were chiefly drawn from the select circles of Mr. Sankey's face, and every eye was for killing the teachers, but wiser coun- sporting life. The struggle between the upon him, showing how close is the sels prevailed. It is said that one tribe the athletes was a long and tedious one, buried slive the teacher's wife and child issting two hours and a half. The enthuse husband and father had thusiasm was not very marked, and as the said that of the hymn with a fervent prayer that ing, Mr. Moody then gave out the peared to be all bone and muscle, with and followed it with a prayer that all peared to be all bone and muscle, with and followed it with a prayer that all STARTON, TOTTER AND semed to rely more upon his science fessor Bliss sang alone the hymn, "No Holly Springs South: If you have reg- than his strength. Throughout the other Name," which I append match he gave his adversary more play One author of salvation -that is, he offered him a far greater To all the world make known number of opportunities to throw him. H The only true foundation is Christ, the corner-ston raised his feet oftener from the ground, One only door of heaven the judge for Lane, and Murray, another wrestler, acted as judge for Farrell. The One sacrifice is given-'It's Christ the living way. An other way is given.

Mr. Bliss's splendid strong bass voice just such a voice as you would expect proceed from such a magnificent aperatic Conservative hosts in November. After another if teen minutes struggle, a min t precious season it was too, and t

The last service of the day was the Lane, by a rapid movement, placed his appropriate crown to the day's labora the first fall, amid tumultuous applause. "Is any one watching and waiting for me The wrestlers thereupon retired to their the audience was melted into tears. Mr rooms and enjoyed a rest of fifteen min- Moody himself among the number, and the struggle, they were greeted with pressive one. Mr. Sankey sang, in clos-Lud clapping of bands. The same per-formance was continued for another After the bare liction the people slow nur; and there were some critical and ly retired; some, and they were not a ing stages of the central, Lane be- few, remaining to converse with some ng once down on his marrow-bones, one of the four evangelists.

was completely swung round by Far-The latter, also, once locked his quick and skillful trip he compelled and have shown clearly Mr. Moody's re markable power in reaching the masse is opponent to release the pedal grip, He preaches for souls. He says nothin Half an hour later, and by a surprisingfor rhetorical effect. He preaches t bit le, and not physics or science. Lane at full length on his side, and in not a discourse; it is not a sermon; not an address. It is an appeal, another batf-second he rolled him over on his back and thus won the match. himself is converted, and must have The time occupied in this throw was men the same. He pictures Christ's exactly one hour. It was nearly mid- love, and puts forth the offers of salvanight when the three hundred specta- | tion. He preaches like John the Bap that animates him and infuses such en-Very few, probably, of the thousands a rare fixed of thoughts upon ever t who throw old shoes after bridal parties same theme. This was well is untrated origin is ancient and can be traced to morning during the eleven rigin is ancient and can be traced to morning during the eleven weeks of their try to an audience of Christian "What do you think of this money his widow, or at least be had the refusal self. He one might be in core and alence. There was an affair of this kind and Bliss will be of interest to your read-A few words as to Merses, Whittle between Ruth and Boaz. In some ers, as they are scarcely less prominentparts of the east it was a custom to caring work than Messis, Moody ouple as a token of the bride's subject Sankey. Colonel Whittle, better known The custom, as it exists with us, as Major Whittle, was formerly in the mong the Germans for the tride, when superintendent of a mission-school "Certainly. What does the increase of the was considered to he increased in a first the greater amount—" to take off her shoe and throw it among the greater. Whoever got it, in the struggle to obtain it, received it electures. During the war Mr. Whiteletter and the struggle to obtain it, received it electures. During the war Mr. Whiteletter and the struggle to obtain it, received it electures. "In a minute—alither aper you might as an omen that he or she would soon be shappily maried. Train, in his his ory of the Isle of Man. He returned from the war as a colone, Chinese Farmers.

The heathen Chines, in the role of intelligent farmer, appears to be a successful the couple started on their time, the sin-gle ladies are d awn up in one row and merly character and superintendent of Memphir, and other places. Professor "Goodness gracious! Maria, what do the bachelors in another. An old shoe the Sabbath-school in Rev. Dr. Goodwin's church. His singleg is wonder-some nights before the coup d'état,

M'ile, Eugenie met her fu'ure emperor to the beneary with a learning time what is a rarry of ome case of all sorts, three times what is a learning to the security while their iof is cast with the case of the people; with a legislature composed of a majority of ignorant negroes, many of whom were elevated to hummakers of thou-pickers; with the matter? The Browns of thou-pickers; with the matter? The Browns of the humble position of the humble position of the humble position for the fluxes and county purposes fooling upone to be these of the western many of the people; with a legislature composed of the people people

THE PEDANTIC LAWYER. BY TORN GURANE.

the prince, and told him that so hi tentions to her daughter were beah to excite comment, she had the I lion of leaving France. This was Cloud, where the mother and daugh were both staying. The prince sakeu al for he might have mmething to se her, and he employed these twenty hours in sequaliting his minusters his intention to marry Mills, Eur Nothing of this kind but born a bended by any one, and Chunt di ny. Count de Persigny, and Ed-Ney earnestly imployed the peli communication was trieds to lith. ie Norman conquest, and have brough net on the twenty-filth of Navin On the second of December that the Bayarian sumb had begun to ge bruited, she asked a private audion

HOME

OF NEW YOUR.

OFFICE, NO. 135 BROADWAY held. The people flocked in from all Forty-Fourth Semi-Annual Stalement ficially notified to the

and on the thirtiets of January

NUMBERS OF of Et. Johnsbury, were also press nody came in, Saturday exentes, and ments are processes, and improne up he were coming in. Source bymn, was started up the congregation. verse after verse of it was sure. Some Mr. Sankey, Professor Bills and Colon Whittle et tered, and Mr. Mondy

The meetings of the day, as a whole, WGOD, TABER & HORS.

MEMPHIS, TEN

OCDEN & BEL

lion dollars; with stealing and jots, legalized by the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the grounds branches of the grounds branches of the grounds branches of the grounds with places.

Ex-Senator M. B. Lewry, of Erie, him to pick up his sword and begin again, but, as he showed some hesitslife the grounds worth fifteen thousand dollars to the Erie home. The friendless.

Ex-Senator M. B. Lewry, of Erie, him to pick up his sword and begin again, but, as he showed some hesitslife the grounds worth fifteen thousand dollars to the cause which was really marvel us as an according to law, offering bond as the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to expesse himself to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to expesse himself to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to expesse himself to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to expesse himself to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to expesse himself to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer in courting roys! princesses. Possibly young too marry, accept that in a kindlaw directs.

Ex-Senator M. B. Lewry, of Erie, him to pick up his sword and begin to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to expesse himself to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, was no longer in the past fifteen minutes, and the past fifteen minutes, was no longer ment to expesse himself to further rebuilts or the past fifteen minutes, and the past fifteen minutes, NO. IS COURT STREET. her opportunity; for, two days before